Rock climbing is challenging, healthy and fun activity which will make your holiday amazing. When approached in the correct way, it is also nowhere near as dangerous as many people think. Rock Climbing cannot always be rigidly structured; every rock face and every climber is different and you learn something new every time you put your feet on the rock. Railay is one of the world's best places to climb; you have to come here and experience the sport with our experience professionalism in order to make your holiday go truly special. You will climb in small groups up to 3 customers per instructor. This will give you the very best instructions, the highest safety, more climbing time and more personal.
